

Looking to learn more about the hidden world of PARASITES?

We are hiring undergraduate students for paid work in the Biodiversity Research Collections this summer as part of a National Science Foundation Grant.

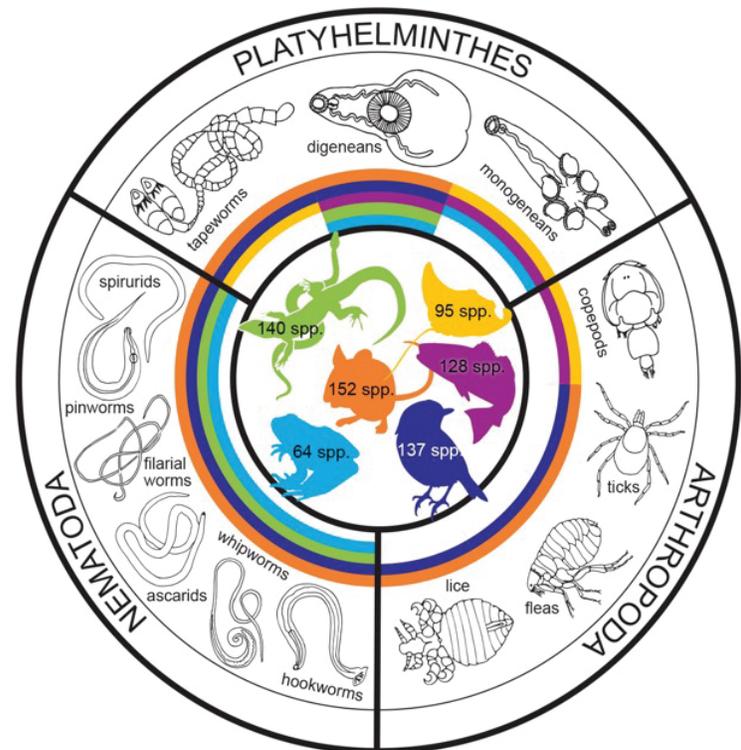

Lawrence R. Penner Parasitology Collection Necropsy Details

Host No. JAC20214

HOST NECROPSY CARD/SHEET	HOST INFORMATION	ASSOCIATED SPECIMENS
	Species Name: Bufo marinus Common Name: Cane Toad Phylum: Chordata Class: Amphibia Order: Anura Sex: Male Size: Specimen Saved: Yes Host Notes: This toad was sickly and skinny. The intestine was very occluded w/ digenies & nematodes	Specimen(s): LRP 9107 LRP 9108 LRP 9109 LRP 10991

RECORD DATA
Date	Action	User Name
2021-08-30	Created	B. Barbeau
2021-09-13	Modified	B. Barbeau
2021-09-27	Modified	O. Mathew

VIEW NECROPSY DATA GALLERY

Duties include:

- helping to make information available online by digitizing specimen data.
- moving specimens to new, more archival slides and containers.

Skills required include:

- Attention to detail.
- Good manual dexterity with small objects.
- Experience with Excel.

Duration is 12 weeks with up to 35 hours a week.
Student hourly wages apply.

To apply, email Dr. Menard (katrina.menard@uconn.edu)
Deadline for applications is April 10th, 2026.